TEACHERS DAY CELEBRATION

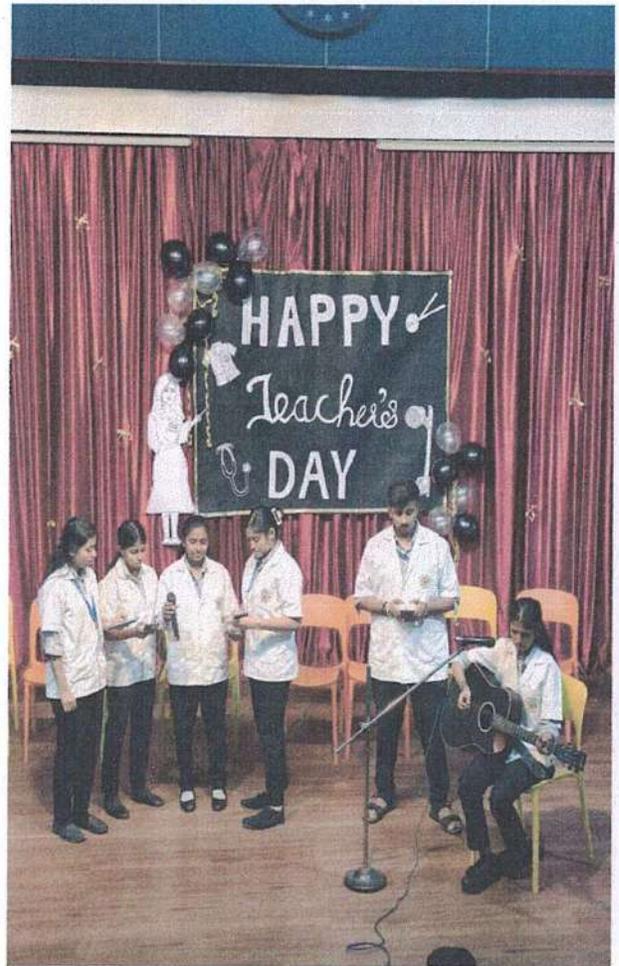

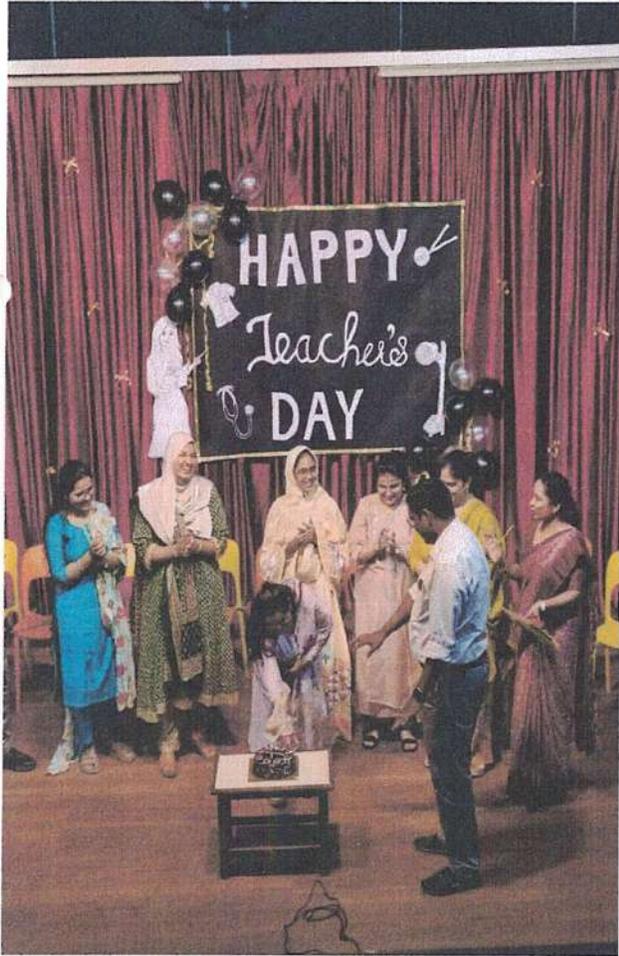

On 4th September 2025, St Andrews college of physiotherapy, celebrated Teachers Day with great enthusiasm. The event was organised by the student council in Auditorium. The programme began around at 2:30 PM. Miss Katriel Menzes from 2nd year welcomed everyone followed by a variety of performances.

Students welcomed staff with flowers to mark the beginning of teachers day. The students of first year had presented a prayer song in group. The event continued wherein students had organised fun games and performances. The teachers were divided into 4 groups. The games included guess the word through emoji, Dumb caharades, and Rapid fire questions etc. All the staff enjoyed all the games.

Following this was the cake cutting ceremony for all the teachers. Principal, Dr. Albin Jerome was then invited on the stage where he expressed his thoughts and also gratitude towards students for organising a fun filled event and making this Teachers day special for all the staff. The event concluded at 5 PM.
